Fifty-Fifth Year

THE COLLEGE of the Immaculate Conception, conducted by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus, was founded in December 1847: and in March, 1856, was endowed by the Legislature of the State of Louisiana, with the full powers and privileges of a University.

The plan of studies embraces the Doctrines and Evidences of the Catholic Religion, Logic, Metaphysics, Ethics, Astronomy, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Mathematics, Rhetoric, Composition, Elocution, History, Geography, Arithmetic, Penmanship, Book-keeping, Stenography, Typewriting, the Latin, Greek, English, French, German and Spanish Languages. The arrangement of these studies is as follows:

I.

Post-Graduate Course

The Post-Graduate Course of Lectures was introduced in the month of November, 1886, and it has since been continued with good results.

Sociology, Natural and International Law, Political Economy and General Physics are the subject-matter of the Lectures.

The Annual Course opens on the first Monday of October and closes at the end of April. The general subject-matter will be distributed over several years, so as to vary the treatises of those who may desire to attend for more than one term.

At the termination of the complete Course, such members of the class as have given satisfaction by regular attendance may apply for the Degree of Bachelor of Philosophy, which will be granted on condition that they pass an examination on Theses, to be selected from the matter developed during the Course, and present an original and creditable paper on a given subject.

The Degree of A. M. will be bestowed after one term of Post-Graduate Lectures, faithfully and studiously attended, on those who have previously received the Degree of A. B.

Graduates of the College, or of any College of the same grade, students of Law or Medicine, and gentlemen of literary or scientific culture, will be admitted to the above Course.

II.

Classical Course

The Classical Course, which leads to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, is designed to impart a thorough, liberal education. In the accomplishment of this purpose, the Ancient Classics hold the first place, because some acquaintance with them is essential to the study of modern literature and to sound scholarship. Besides Latin, Greek and English, it embraces Religious Instruction, Mental and Moral Philosophy, Astronomy and Mathematics, History, Literature, Book-keeping, and the Natural Sciences. It has been found by long experience that this is the only Course that affords unsurpassed mental discipline, forms a correct taste, and prepares the student to excel in any pursuit, whether professional or commercial.

III.

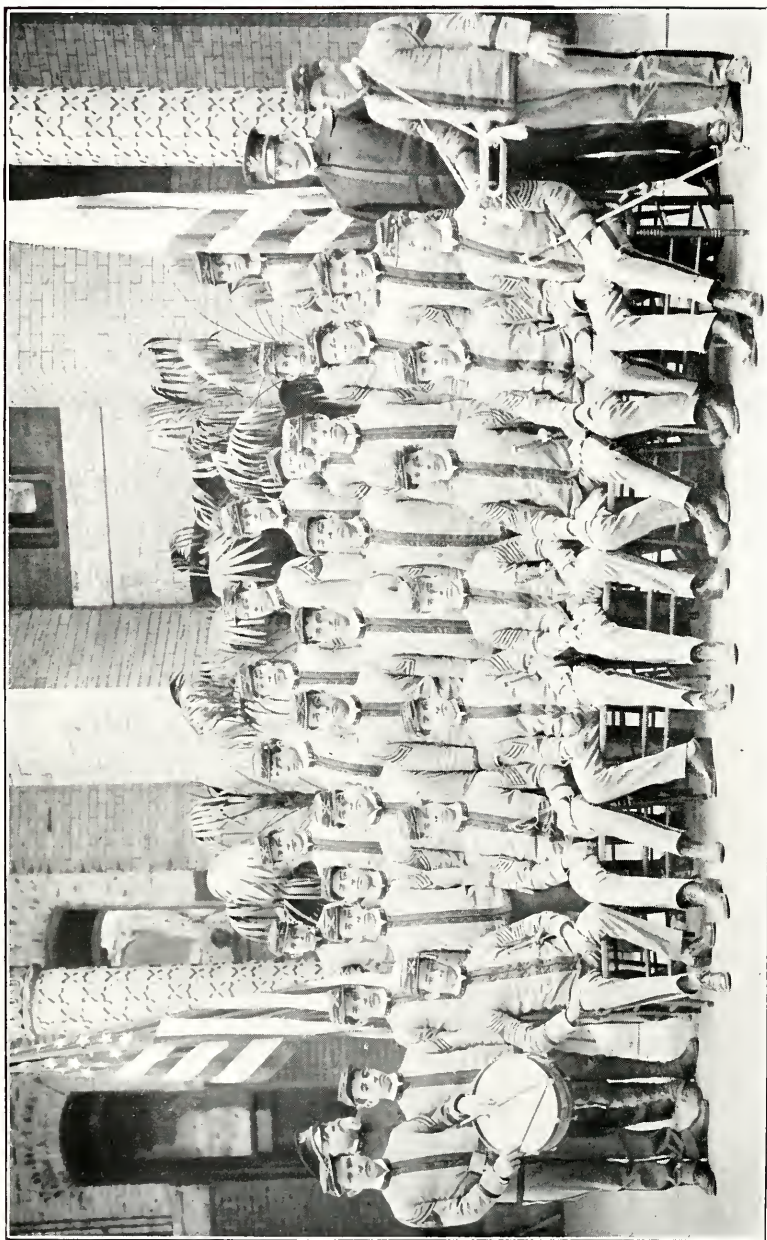

Commercial Course

This Course offers the means of acquiring a good English or Commercial education. It embraces Book-keeping, a thorough study of Arithmetic, Algebra, Grammar, Style, practice in Composition, English, and Religious Instruction. At the end of the Course, a Commercial Certificate is awarded to those who pass a satisfactory examination. Moreover, the Degree of Bachelor of Science will be conferred upon those who successfully devote two extra years to the study of Literature, Philosophy and the Natural Sciences.

IV.

Preparatory Department

This Department comprises the First and Second Preparatory. Its object is to introduce the younger pupils to the study of the first principles of Grammar, chiefly by class-drill: to form them to habits of attention and application, and thus prepare them for one of the regular Courses of Instruction.

Requirements for entering this Department are:

FIRST.—The applicant must know how to read, write and spell creditably.

SECOND.—He should know Arithmetic as far as Long Division, included.

Military Department

In the scholastic year of 1900-1901 the College authorities, after mature deliberation, decided to institute a Military Department into the College curriculum, and a Cadet Battalion was formed under the name of the Jesuit College Cadet Corps.

This new departure has proved most popular with the student body and has met with the most hearty approval on the part of parents.

Within the short period of their history the Cadets have already attained a high degree of proficiency, as has been evidenced on many occasions when they appeared in public.

But desiring to raise the standard of the Corps to the highest degree of perfection, the authorities of the College have finally succeeded in having the Military Department placed under the direction and supervision of the United States regular army. This change took place in January of the current year. The Cadets enrolled in the Battalion contract no obligations to be called upon for military service, either by the State or the General Government.

The Cadet Corps is now supervised by an officer of the United States Army, detailed for duty at the College, by the Secretary of War, for a period of four years.

The officer thus assigned is Brevet Major W. M. Williams, Captain U. S. Army, retired, an officer who fought in the Civil War, and who has been in service about forty years.

The Cadet Corps numbers at present three hundred and two of the students. Their appearance in the numerous civic processions in the city has elicited much praise. The precision in the evolutions, in the manual of arms, and in marching, so manifest now, augurs well for the future of the Corps.

The arms in use at present belong to the State of Louisiana, but under the Congressional enactment the Government will supply an adequate number of Cadet Rifles, of the kind used by the Cadets at the West Point Military Academy.

The uniform is the West Point Cadet pattern, a steel grey, with black facings, very neat, serviceable and the most economical clothing the boys can wear. The uniform may be worn at all times, but, of course, it must be kept neat and tidy in appearance.

The detail of an officer of the Army to a College carries with it a supply of Infantry arms, equipments and ammunition for target practice, Artillery field pieces and blank cartridges, and, in some cases, where there are facilities for their use, Cavalry arms and equipments.

The practical course of Infantry embraces small arms target practice, and as far as possible, all the movements prescribed by the Drill Regulations of the U. S. Army, applicable to a battalion.

Instruction also includes the duties of sentinels, and where practicable, Castramentation—establishing camps, erection of forts, etc.

The officers of the Cadet Corps are appointed by competitive examinations.

Upon the graduation of each class, the Military Instructor reports to the War Department and to the Adjutant General of the State the names of those students who have shown special aptitude for military service, and the names of the three most distinguished in military science and tactics are inserted in the U. S. Army Register.

The time given to the Military Department will not in any way interfere with the usual College curriculum.

Religious Training

The College authorities are convinced that, without Religion, there can be no education, in the true sense of the word, that is to say, no complete and harmonious development of the intellect and heart of man. They hold, furthermore, that religious truth, being definite and certain, like any and every other truth, is as susceptible of teaching as the science of language, or the theory of numbers. Hence, the Catechism of Christian Doctrine is a text-book in every class, and lectures on it are given twice a week. In all the classes the day's work begins and ends with prayer. The Catholic Religion alone is taught, but non-Catholics will also be welcome and their religious opinions studiously respected. Catholic students go to Confession the third Saturday of each month, then on the following Sunday, in the Church annexed to the College, hear Mass and receive Holy Communion.

General Regulations

Admission

VERY Student who applies for admission must furnish testimonials of good moral character, unless he be personally known to some member of the faculty; and should he come from another institution, he will be required to bring satisfactory evidence of blameless conduct. He is then examined by the Prefect of Studies, and assigned to that class for which his previous attainments have qualified him.

The session is divided into two terms. The first begins on the first Monday in September, the second on the first of February and closes towards the end of June.

Leaving the College

Parents who wish to withdraw their sons before the end of the session are respectfully requested to give due notice of their intention to the Vice - President. Many inconveniences will thus be avoided, and order secured. Should any student leave of his own accord, or be withdrawn without such notice, or without giving satisfactory reasons, he will not be re-admitted. On leaving, students should take their books, etc., with them, as the College is not responsible for any articles left behind.

Examinations

Two examinations are held every year, one at the end of each term.

CHURCH AND COLLEGE

Promotions

Though promotions may take place any time during the year, whenever warranted by the progress of the student, the usual time is the beginning of the school year. These promotions depend partly on the final examinations, and partly on the general class standing during the preceding year. A student of ordinary talent, and steady application during the entire session, may be easily promoted, provided he returns promptly when classes are resumed. Should he not be promoted, it is usually a sign that he did not attend regularly during the entire session, or that he did not devote sufficient time daily to home study. Should a student fail in the final examination, he will be offered the privilege of passing a private examination during the vacation, if his yearly average warrants the concession. Should a student, however, fail in the semi-annual examination and also in the final examination, he forfeits any such privilege.

Competitions

Competitive exercises are given monthly in the various branches, the results being read publicly in the presence of the faculty and students, and the leaders rewarded for their proficiency.

To lend interest to these announcements, as well as to accustom the students to appear in public, the proceedings are varied with class matter, declamations, original speeches, vocal and instrumental music.

Testimonials of good conduct and diligence are given regularly to deserving students. Parents should require these evidences of good behavior, and if not forthcoming, take an early opportunity of visiting the Vice-President, to inquire why their sons fail to receive merit cards.

Modern Languages

The study of French, Spanish and German is optional and entails no extra charge.

Stenography and Typewriting

The study of these branches is optional.

Fees and Expenses

As the College is not endowed, it is entirely dependent for its support on the fees paid for tuition.

Tuition per month, payable in advance	$6 00
Use of Chemicals, etc., per annum	10 00
Classical Diploma	10 00
Commercial Certificate.....	5 00
Stenography and Typewriting, each, per month	1 00

N. B.—No deduction is made for any absence less than half a month.

Books and stationery are furnished by the College at current prices.

Special Regulations

THE ATTENTION of students is specially directed to the important duty of home study. Since recitations in the various branches fill up almost all the school hours, it is very difficult to advance, and utterly impossible to accomplish the work laid out for each year, unless the student devotes at least three hours daily to class study at home. Parents are exhorted to insist on this indispensable duty, and to inform the faculty, should their sons neglect it.

Home Study

After home study the next duty which should claim the attention of students and the vigilance of parents is punctuality.

Punctuality Severe illness or absence from the city is, generally speaking, the only excuse admissible for staying away. Whenever parents keep their sons at home, on account of sickness or for any other good reason, they are requested to send a postal card to the Vice-President. Frequent absence so rapidly lowers a student's class standing, that the faculty prefer he should be withdrawn entirely.

Owing, moreover, to the serious inconvenience resulting to professors and students from breaking in on class-hours by withdrawal before the end of the afternoon Attendance the whole day class, permission to leave College will not be given, unless for reasons deemed imperative by the Vice-President.

If parents do not insist on home study and punctual attendance, they need not be astonished if their sons remain a second year in the same class, or, perhaps, be refused re-admission.

Along with moral and mental training, the faculty lay great stress on the development of the manners of perfect gentlemen, and consider the rules of politeness a very important part of the course of studies. Whatever, therefore, is contrary to good breeding, is out of place in College. Consequently no boisterous conduct or rough play is tolerated

Politeness on the premises, and silence is strictly enjoined in the class-rooms, and on the corridors or stairways leading thereto. Any ungentlemanly conduct among the students themselves, any disrespect or insubordination to a professor or officer of the College, will be visited with severe punishment, and even with dismissal should the gravity of the offense require such a penalty.

For faults of ordinary occurrence, such as tardy arrival, failure in exercises or recitations, slight violations of rules, detention after class, or the task of writing or memorizing some lines from an author, is deemed a sufficient penalty.

For faults committed outside of the premises, the officers of the College are by no means responsible, as students cease, then, to be under their jurisdiction; still, Penalties should any serious charge be fairly substantiated, the guilty will be punished according to the gravity of the offense.

Damages to the College property will be repaired at the expense of the offender.

The use of profane language or anything bordering on immorality, will subject the offender to immediate expulsion.

Once a month the marks of all the students are read out Monthly in the classes. These marks are the record of Marks daily lessons, exercises, conduct and monthly competitions. 100 is the maximum. A student receiving over 89, merits a testimonial of the first grade, one receiving from 80 to 89, merits one of the second grade.

A report of these marks is sent to the home of every student to be signed by his parents or guardian. As these reports Monthly indicate exactly the student's class standing, the Reports College requests that they be very carefully examined, and afterwards returned to the Professor. No student is allowed to open his report. Should these reports be not forthcoming, parents or guardians should consult the Vice-President as soon as possible.

The College is open at 8 A. M. All are obliged to be present at 8:45 A. M., at which hour they go to church for Cardiness morning prayer. Class begins precisely at 9 o'clock.

A student arriving after the 8:45 o'clock bell has rung, must report at once to the Vice-President, and cannot enter class without a note from him.

Written excuses for lessons or exercises fall under the same rule as notes for absence: a student not prepared to recite is considered as morally absent, and is marked accordingly. Such excuses are to be handed to the Prefect of Studies, who will decide whether, in some special instance, they are to be admitted.

No student, unless for serious reasons, will be allowed to take his lunch outside the College limits. Parents are requested not to ask this permission if it can be possibly avoided.

Thursday is the weekly holiday, but should an extraordinary holiday fall on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Friday, classes may be continued on Thursday, as usual.

All are expected to be clean and neat in person and Dress apparel.

Division, Definition, Analysis and Synthesis.

Critical Logic

1. A Simple Apprehension as such, cannot be false.

2. The doctrine of Universal Scepticism is absurd.

3. Descartes' 'System of Methodic Doubt' is self-contradictory.

4. Immediate analytical judgments can never be false.

5. Our external senses, acting under proper conditions, are reliable in their perception of the sensible qualities of bodies.

6. The ultimate and universal criterion of certainty is the evidence of the objective truth.

Ontology

1. The term 'Being' as applied to God and creatures is analogous.
2. The internal possibility of things does not depend formally on the power nor on the will of God.
3. The internal possibility of things depends proximately on the intellect of God and fundamentally on His divine essence.
4. All action is directed to some end or purpose.
5. It is not impossible for God to preserve in existence some strictly absolute accidents separated from the substances in which they must naturally inhere.

Cosmology

1. Pantheism and Agnosticism are systems destructive of all religion, morality and human society.
2. The world was created.
3. The world is not absolutely but only relatively perfect.
4. The ultimate or primary end of the world is God's extrinsic glory.
5. Miracles are possible.
6. There are in matter two substantial principles, viz: prime matter and substantial form; the former is the principle of éxtension, the latter that of specific action.

Psychology

1. Though endowed with sensitive perception and instinct, yet animals have no intelligence.
2. The will of man is free not only from coercion, but also from all necessary action.
3. The human soul is simple.
4. The human soul is spiritual.
5. The human soul is immortal.

Natural Theology

1. There exists a necessary or self-existent being, the intelligent cause of the universe to whom all men are responsible for their moral conduct.
2. God is infinitely perfect.
3. There can be only one God.
4. God is intrinsically immutable.
5. God knows all things possible, all things past, present and future, whether absolutely or only conditionally future.
6. God is free in all His external acts.
7. God is omnipotent.
8. God's Providence extends to each and every event in the world.

Ethics

1. God is the only object that can make man perfectly happy.
2. Man is accountable to God for his moral acts.
3. Men are obliged to render public worship to God.
4. Suicide is never allowed.
5. A lie is intrinsically evil.
6. Duelling, being contrary to the natural law, is never allowed.
7. Under certain conditions, it is lawful, in self-defense, to kill an unjust aggressor.
8. Civil society has the right to inflict capital punishment for enormous crimes.

Natural Sciences

Physics

1. Transmission of pressure in liquids. Pascal's law. Hydrostatic press. Downward, upward and lateral pressure. Equilibrium of liquids in communicating vessels. Archimedes' principle;—its application in determining the specific gravity of solids.
2. Properties of gases. The atmosphere and its pressure. Barometers. Mariotte's Law. The Air-pump. Lifting and force pumps. Siphon.
3. Production of statical electricity. Electroscope. Electrostatic induction. Electrophorus. Plate machine. Condensation of electricity. Leyden jar.
4. Current electricity. Primary batteries. Daniell's, gravity, and Leclanche cells. Electrical Units. Ohm's law. Electrolysis and its applications. Galvanometer. Permanent and electromagnets.
5. Electromagnetic induction. Ruhmkorff's coil. Dynamo. Morse's Telegraph. Telephone.
6. Wave motion. Wave period. Wave length. Amplitude. Production and propagation of sound. Sound Waves. Intensity, pitch and timbre of musical sounds. Reinforcement and interference of sound.
7. Ordinary thermometers. Expansion of bodies by heat. Rate of gaseous expansion. Relation of temperature and volume of gases. Liquefaction and vaporization. Latent and specific heats.

General Chemistry

1. Chemical symbols and formulae. Molecular and atomic weights. Chemical equations. Quantivalence. Laws of definite and multiple proportions. Gravimetric computations.
2. Describe the elements H, O, N, Cl, S. Explain the manufacture of HCl, HNO_3 , NH_3 , H_2SO_4 ; and give the chief properties and uses of these compounds. Acids, bases, salts.

3. Occurrence, preparation, properties and uses of the various forms of Carbon. Illuminating gas.
4. Preparation, properties and uses of the compounds Na Cl , $\text{Na}_2 \text{CO}_3$, Na OH , Ca O , Ca (OH)_2 .
5. Cast Iron, wrought iron, steel. Preparation of these substances from the ores of iron.

Mechanics

1. Motion and rest. Kinds of motion. Laws of uniform, and uniformly accelerated motion. Composition and resolution of uniform velocities.
2. Force. Kinds of force, and their effects upon a free body. Newton's laws of motion. Measurement of force.
3. Work and Energy. Their measurement. Kinds of Energy. Transformation and conservation of energy.
4. Composition and resolution of angular forces acting in one plane. Equilibrium of forces. Conditions of equilibrium. Moments. Theorem of moments.
5. Simple Machines. General laws of machines. Levers. Pulleys. Inclined plane.

Argument:

A severe plague is making sad havoc in Rome, while some of her fairest colonies are laid waste by storm and earthquake. The Emperor, Antoninus Pius, seeks to know the meaning of these dread signs and fearful visitings. He is informed by the Priests of Jove, Cybele and others that the christians alone, on account of their contempt and mocking of the gods, are responsible for their anger and the severe chastisements sent by the gods upon the empire. Persuaded that his priests and courtiers have stated the true cause of Rome's calamities, the Emperor determines to crush the christians, and accordingly decrees that all who will not worship the gods shall die.

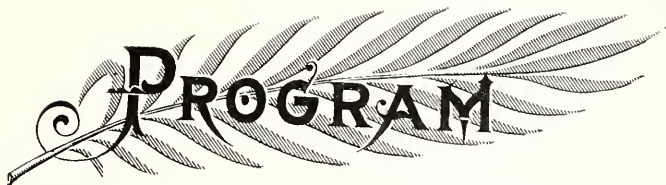

Pius the First, Pontiff and head of the christians, endeavors to induce the Emperor to recall his words, but in vain. Athol, son of a British Noble, and cupbearer to the Emperor, sides with Pius and proclaims himself a christian. He is about to be condemned, but at the request of Marius Brennus, Prefect of the Pretorians, whose life has been saved by Athol's father, the Emperor grants Athol three days in which to change his mind. He is cast into prison, but is stolen away secretly by Rufus, Prefect of Rome, who has designs upon the throne, and wishes to use Athol as his tool in making away with the life of the Emperor.

Caius Varro, a Roman Knight, reduced in fortune, but still famous for his bravery and efficiency as a soldier, espouses the cause of Rufus, and on the first occasion that offers seeks to take the life of the Emperor. He is completely disarmed by the courage and nobility of character displayed by the Emperor, and later, becoming aware of Rufus' sinister designs on himself, frees Athol from his clutches. Rufus and his fellow conspirators, on learning of this act of Caius Varro, fall on him furiously, and leave him apparently writhing in the throes of death.

Meanwhile, Athol has learned of the premeditated attack on the Emperor's life, and hastens back to the palace, arriving in time to save the Emperor from being murdered in his sleep by Zeuxo, Priest of Isis and emissary of Rufus. The Emperor unaware of the attack on his life, but realizing that he has escaped from some unknown danger, repairs with all his court to the temple of Jove to give thanks to the gods.

Athol again appears on the scene together with the Pontiff, and, for their faith in Christ, both are condemned to instant death. Immediately after their condemnation Caius Varro, though severely wounded, manages to drag himself to the temple, and exposes the treachery of Rufus.

The Emperor on hearing that he owes his life to Athol, recalls the sentence of condemnation, but too late to save the life of Athol who wins the much coveted martyr's crown. The Emperor then decrees that while he lives none evermore shall suffer for their faith in Christ.

MUSIC AND TABLEUX.

MEDLEY OVERTURE.....Roof Garden..... L. O. de Witt
 SALUTATORY.....ALEXANDER DARDIS

ACT I.

SCENE I.—Throne Room in the Emperor's Palace.

ATHOL.—I am but as a worthless flower bud,
 Thrown at thy feet, thy heel may crush at will;
 But all the sweeter shall its odors rise
 To Christ who looks upon the sacrifice.

SCHOTTISCHE..... The Maiden With the Dreamy Eyes E. Boettger

SCENE II.—Interior of a Roman Villa.

CAIUS VARRO.—I see the shadow of a golden crown
 Hung over thee, and now, behold, there stands,
 With lifted sword—the headsman! ha, ha, ha!
 Which shall it be? 'tis but the chance of dice,
 My lord, cast by some drunken reveller.

WALTZ, Jesuits' Cadets.....Composed by MISS MARGUERITE POINTS

Tableau.—The Decree and the Respite.

A NOVELETTE.....Hiawatha Moret

ACT II.

SCENE I.—Atrium in House of Rufus.

RUFUS.—Fear? nay hope!
 And let your pulse beat music; for this day
 Fortune, with both her palms extended, stands
 Upon the threshold of your life. Beware,
 Lest turning from her, you may find
 The shadow of an evil in her stead.

ATHOL.—The cause, my lord, these are but flatteries.

FRANCEZKA WALTZES..... Blanke

SCENE II.—The Outskirts of Rome.

TABULUS.—Why, see ye now, good neighbor, while There's wine a-plenty here in Rome.....shall
 We thirst, shall we parch?

* * * * *

EMPEROR.....Kneel, Caius Varro, kneel
 To the sacred person of thy Emperor!
 No? Then hear: Thou braggest of thy deeds,
 See! I dare more. Fighting thou didst face death,
 I dare to face it and not raise my sword.

TWO STEP.....Dixie Land..... Haines

SCENE III.—Atrium in House of Rufus.

CAIUS VARRO.—Ha, ha, ha! Now, by the gods and vestal Virgins! come, be thou my oracle! Why Should not a Greek Hermes on a cushion do As well as an old wizened hag upon Apollo's Tripod! Come, deliver prophecy!

MARCH.....Dixie Girl..... Lempe

Tableau.—The Conspiracy.....The First Attack.

WALTZ.....Toreador..... T. P. Royle

ACT III.

SCENE I.—A Room in the Emperor's Palace.

EMPEROR.—It seemed last night that in my sleep I saw
How Life and Death were struggling in my sight.
And, strange to say, Death, in his leanness yet,
Did seem to bear the likeness of great Jovè;
And Life, by strange contradiction, bore
The semblance of the Crucified, and on
The struggle so I thought, my life was staked.

CUBANOLA..... Blanke

SCENE II.—Interior of the Temple of Jove.

ATHOL.—Death! 'tis the purple light of breaking dawn
My soul shall, like a dove, mount upward in,
And rest upon the bosom of her Lord.

TWO STEP.....My Dream Lady..... Moret

Tableau.—The Sacrifice.

POPE.—Now is thy sacrifice received, fair soul,
And by its sweetness is the Church enriched,
While grace is poured upon the souls of men,
Through God's great Love, to Whom be praise
And glory through the ages evermore!

Acknowledgments

The President and Faculty wish to express publicly and in an especial manner the gratitude with which the College recalls and cherishes the memory of its past and present benefactors. The Messrs. Bernard, Patrick and Hugh McCloskey have at their own expense erected the Superb College Annex now occupied by the Primary Department. The Thomas J. Semmes Memorial Chapel is the Munificent Gift of a noble wife fittingly perpetuating the memory of her illustrious husband in the College he loved so well.

The College also desires to express its gratitude to Mrs. Jas. Denègre, Mr. J. B. Levert, Mr. Nicholas Burke, Mrs. N. Hanton Burke, Mr. Lawrence Fabacher, Mr. Joseph Burguières, Mr. Francis R. Johnson, Mrs. Andrews Johnson, Mr. James Sinnott, Mr. Anthony Vizard and other true friends who generously contributed to the building fund.

The College hopes that these noble examples will arouse in others, blessed with ample fortune, the desire to emulate the above-named donors and to advance the cause of Christian education by assisting in the construction of the contemplated Science Hall and other buildings forming an essential feature in the original plan.

The President and Faculty express their grateful acknowledgment also to the various departments of the U. S. Government and of the Smithsonian Institute for contributions to the College Library and Museum.

To Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., for one scholarship in the Law Department and for one in the Medical Department.

To Tulane University for two scholarships in the College of Technology.

To Hon. Adolph Meyer for many acts of courtesy and kindness.

To Gen. Allen Jumel, Major Frank Lobrano and Colonel Adams for many acts of courtesy.

To the Right Rev. Bishop Rouxel for a collection of the Analecta.

To Father Algé, S. J., for his volume on the Philippines.

To the Rev. Michael Riordan for various works of Theology, Asceticism and Science.

To Mrs. V. J. Calhoun for valuable books.

To Mr. James D. Richardson for ten volumes of Messages and Papers of the Presidents of the United States.

To Mr. St. John Perret for various volumes.

To Mrs. Hamilton for precious ores, relics, and curiosities donated to the Museum.

To Mrs. Poché for the beautiful and costly Carrara marble statue of St. Joseph.

To the Misses Marguerite and Marie Points for numerous acts of kindness and courtesy.

To Mr. Lawrence Fabacher and Captain Comeaux for many acts of kindness and hospitality manifested towards the Faculty.

To the U. S. Government for the appointment of a Military Instructor.

To Lieutenant Colonel Vose, late of the Jackson Barracks, for the appointment of our ex-drill master, Sergeant Woodlief.

To Lieutenants Marion B. Wilhoit and Andrew A. Jackson of the Fourth Artillery Corps, Jackson Barracks, for acts of kindness and interest towards the Cadets.

To the City Park Commissioners for Gold Medal; to Mr. Cohn for the use of Sportsman's Park; to Mr. W. Cain, to the Misses K. and M. McCann for acts of kindness.

To Mr. W. H. Rowles for courtesy of Tulane Theatre.

To Mr. E. Claudel for many beautiful photographs, some of which accompany this Catalogue.

To the local press for many acts of courtesy.

The next Session will commence on Monday
September 7th, 1903
